

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

TUESDAY EVE., APRIL 10, 1883.

"SHE WAS sitting at the window
As he passed,
And he wished himself in Hindoo-
Stan, for fast
In the gutter stuck his shoe,
And straight in the air he flew
All aghast,
He was sitting in a puddle
Awful mad,
And his head was in a muddle,
It was sad;
While that girl she coldly smiled,
Which the more his soul it filled,
Crushed lad."

He was sitting at the window
As she fell,
I think it was a sin, do
You as well?
He turned not away his head-
They were silk and colored red,
Don't you tell."

BRIDGE street, north of Second, is to be widened about ten feet.

WORKMEN are engaged repairing the East wall of the old pork house building.

THE April term of the Circuit Court began to-day. The docket is a larger one than usual.

MR. BURTIS RINGO sold recently, seventeen thousand pounds of tobacco to Mr. A. H. Calvert for thirteen cents all around.

THE cheap tables advertised in the BULLETIN by some of the shoe dealers are commanding the attention of buyers, and many bargains have been obtained.

UNCLE HEADLY HARRISON, of Lewis county, has left at this office a curiosity in the shape of an ear of corn. It is of peculiar form and contains more than the usual number of grains.

THE congregation of the Southern Presbyterian church will hold their regular services at the church next Sunday morning and evening. Preaching by Rev. S. H. Chester, of Charlotte, N. C., the public is cordially invited.

Mrs. M. J. MORFORD is now at Cincinnati selecting her spring and summer stock of millinery goods. She will return the last of the week, she assures her friends, with one of the largest and best selected assortments ever brought to the city. The ladies will find it to their interest to await the arrival of the stock.

ONLY one turnpike road company filed an annual statement of its financial condition at the late term of the County Court, although the law requires that it shall be done. The one that complied with the law was the Lewis and Mason Road Company of which Mr. A. R. Glascock is the Secretary and Treasurer.

A DESPATCH received this morning by Mr. C. D. Sheppard, from Winchester, Ohio, gives a very unfavorable account of the condition of Mrs. Joseph Varian. There was no change for the better, and she could neither eat nor speak. It is probable, the despatch said, that she will be brought back to Maysville if possible.

MISS JULIA A. HUNT, the well known and popular actress, so favorably noticed by the press recently, will appear at the Opera House to-morrow evening in the "Pearl of Savoy." It is in play in which she is especially good and in which she has received and merited the warm commendation of the press and public. Our playgoing people will be much pleased with the entertainment.

MR. T. F. KIFF, who came to Maysville a stranger several years ago, by persistent attention to his business and politeness to his patrons has established a prosperous trade. His bath rooms and laundry on Front street are marvels of neatness and his work has in all cases given entire satisfaction. He is making improvements as fast as his business requires it to be done, and has in consequence as convenient and well regulated an establishment as there is the city.

A LETTER just received by Mr. M. R. Gilmore from his relatives at Ballygar, Ireland, announces the death of his brother, Mr. Hugh Gilmore, who several years ago lived in this city. He will be remembered as a man of singularly gentle nature, of extreme modesty and of many generous qualities. He had been in ill health for some time before his death which occurred about the 16th of March. The settlement of his brother's affairs may require Mr. Gilmore to make a brief visit to his native land.

Accident at the Fair Grounds.

Mr. J. Freeman Price, while at work Monday afternoon on the roof of one of the cattle sheds at the fair ground, by the breaking of a plank upon which he was standing, fell to the ground, a distance of eight or ten feet and was seriously hurt. His collar bone and several ribs were broken and he was beside badly bruised on other parts of his body. He was removed to his home and his injuries attended to by Dr. J. T. Strode.

It gives us pleasure to notice the becoming bearing of our friends when they achieve honor or it is thrust upon them. Mr. S. S. Riley, who was lately appointed by the County Court appraiser of an estate, is conducting himself most modestly. He still recognizes his friends, chews the same kind of tobacco and drinks out of the same dipper that his associates at the bank use. A neat placard over his desk reads:

"Because you flourish in worldly affairs,
Don't be haughty and put on airs,
With insolent pride of station,
Don't be proud and turn up your nose,
Bow up your back and wriggle your toes,
But know for the sake of your soul's repose,
That honor's a bubble and comes and goes,
And all proud flesh wherever it grows,
Is subject to irritation."

MR. H. R. ELLIOTT, of London, England, arrived in this city April 5th, under the auspices of the American Colonization Society. He was assigned to Mr. L. H. Mannen, of Germantown, Ky., for the purpose of learning how to become a practical farmer. The young gentleman has a pleasing address, is twenty years old, well educated and belongs to a good English family. Judge Wall, who is the agent of the Society, is expecting the arrival of four or five more in a few weeks, who will be located with our leading farmers. These young men design locating in Kentucky, and are able to purchase farms, but desire some practical experience before investing their means. Our country will be benefited by the infusion of some genuine John Bulls, and we trust our farmers will apply for all the young Britons who will come over.
